Dear Examiner Chen:

The following amendment and remarks are offered in response to the Examiner's Office Action dated 24 January 2004, and which has a three-month extended statutory response period of 24 July 2005, which, falling on a Sunday, is automatically extended to 25 July 2005. The appropriate fee is enclosed via a credit card form, and favorable consideration of the above-referenced patent application is respectfully requested.

Please note that the assignee in the present case has been changed (a recordation of assignment was filed last week), and the Attorney of Record does not yet have access to all the information associated with this application, however, every effort is made to address the issues raised by the Examiner in his office action (the attorney of record remains the attorney of record, and the address of record also remains the address of record). It is sincerely believed that the amendment to the claims herein should help progress the Application to allowance.

If the Examiner has further questions, he is requested to respond via telephone for further discussion, and to arrange a formal meeting at his office, if necessary.

Sincerely,
